

AMERICA'S NEXT TOP-LESS MODEL?

A SHOCKING porn scandal has rocked "America's Next Top Model" - after X-rated photos bearing a striking resemblance to one of its top contestants surfaced on the internet!

The lewd photos reportedly show runway wannabe Jael in compromising positions - and sources say the show's host, ex-supermodel Tyra Banks, is livid!

Knowing that we all know about Tyra, she must be absolutely furious!" said a showbiz insider.

"Even the hint that one of her proteges might have a scandalous background goes against the image she's trying to portray."

In the racy photos, the Jael look-alike lounges nude on a park bench. In another picture, she stands on a city street naked except for high heels.

Jael is also reportedly seen partying with a male pal, who's holding bottles of whiskey and beer. She's wearing a blue wig, lace gloves and a cropped T-shirt that exposes a star tattoo on her hip.

The star tattoo is identical to the one that Jael bares in her official photos for "America's Next Top Model!" While the show's publicist had no comment when asked about the photos, the showbiz insider said: "I wouldn't be surprised if the pictures were of Jael. She has a wild history."

In the March 14 episode, Jael - a 22-year-old band manager from Detroit, Mich. - learns that a close friend died of a drug overdose.

The insider added: "I believe that the pictures - which do appear to be of Jael - stayed undercover until taping was over. By then, it was too late to eliminate her and reshoot the season."
