

Ashlee has A HONEY of a baby shower

Big sis, mom throw Winnie the Pooh party

Guests at the Nov. 1 afternoon party dined on crab cakes, peanut butter and jelly sandwiches and jicama and grapefruit salad.

“THE PARTY LASTED FOR three hours,” said the insider, “and the dessert was a hit at the affair – a huge black-and-yellow cake in the shape of a bumble bee.”

Ashlee, 24, and Fall Out Boy frontman Pete, 29, started dating in 2006 and married in May of this year – just days before confirming Ashlee was expecting.

“The shower was perfect – classy but childlike,” said the insider. “Pete was glowing as much as Ashlee.”

by ROBIN MIZRAHI
rmizrahi@nationalenquirer.com

PREPARATIONS: Workers get things ready for the event

FAMILY PAL: CaCee Cobb leaves Hotel Bel-Air

HAPPY COUPLE: Ashlee and hubby Pete Wentz are close to being Mom and Dad

Johnny Carson was king of late-night TV for years

Bushkin will also describe how Carson partied in Las Vegas with many of the 18 lovelies in his show’s chorus line – using a 10,000-square-foot penthouse at Caesars Palace.

SHOCKINGLY, CARSON REFUSED TO visit his son Rick when he was committed to New York’s

Henry Bushkin and Johnny once started a bank together

Bellevue hospital suffering from severe emotional problems, according to the attorney.

As Carson aged, he also abandoned many of his closest friends – including his lawyer pal. Bushkin had once been so close to Carson that they started the Commercial Bank of California together. It was shut down in 1983 because of insufficient capital and heavy losses.

“At one time we did everything together,” says Bushkin. “At the end, he treated me like everybody else – like I didn’t exist.”

by ALEXANDER HITCHEN
ahitchen@nationalenquirer.com

Johnny’s troubled son Rick