

EVA DESTRUCTION!

'Desperate Housewives' star turns into Bridezilla before wedding

She was having major meltdowns, yelling that nothing was getting done and the wedding would be a failure

DESPERATE HOUSEWIVES' beauty Eva Longoria turned into a fire-breathing Bridezilla in the weeks leading up to her July 7 wedding to basketball star Tony Parker in Paris.

She screamed at employees, fought with Tony's mom, and refused to discuss a prenuptial agreement, say sources.

"She was having major meltdowns, yelling that nothing was getting done and the wedding would be a failure," an insider told THE ENQUIRER.

"Planning the event turned into a nightmare for everyone involved."

Tony's mom Pamela Firestone and Eva—who have never been close—clashed often while preparing for the main event, according to another source.

Pamela thinks Tony, 25, is too young to get married—especially to an older divorced woman. Eva, 32, was married to actor Tyler Christopher for two years before they divorced in 2004.

But Pamela is especially concerned that Tony doesn't have a prenuptial agreement with Eva.

Tony makes $11 million a year for the NBA champion San Antonio Spurs—and he has many years ahead of increasing earning power.

And while Eva makes a hefty salary on "Desperate Housewives" and has a number of commercial endorsements, Tony's earning power is much greater.

"Without a prenup, if he and Eva ever divorce, he'll see half his fortune go to her," continued the insider. "Tony tried to talk to Eva about the premarriage financial arrangement, but she made it crystal clear that a prenup was out of the question."

Eva pulled out all the stops to create a spectacular wedding at Vaux-le-Vicomte, a 17th century castle south of Paris. Her publicist denied that Eva had any kind of preceremony meltdown.

But a source says that Pamela nixed some of Eva's more extravagant plans, including ruling against Eva having an $11,000 wedding cake flown in from the U.S.

"She's furious that Eva is so willing to throw around Tony's money," said the insider.

by ROBIN MIZRAHI and JOHN SOUTH

Eva and Tony's wedding venue: Vaux-le-Vicomte