ONLY THE BEST BABY PRESENTS FOR J.LO (as in most expensive)

JENNIFER LOPEZ is awash in fabulous baby shower presents.

The ENQUIRER was weeks ahead of other media in reporting that Jennifer and hubby Marc Anthony were expecting.

And now readers have the inside scoop on the lavish items the celeb mom has been receiving and purchasing for herself.

Jennifer had her baby shower on Jan. 19, and a close friend told The ENQUIRER that "she received thousands of dollars worth of baby gifts – and the fancy infant items have been pouring in."

Jennifer registered at the posh children's store Petit Tresor, asking for – and receiving – the newest and most cutting-edge baby gear at sky-high prices.

Among other items, Jennifer "wished" for: a Batiste bassinet ($800), an Enchanted Forest

J.Lo registered for such pricey items as an $800 bassinet and a $485 highchair

J.Lo and Marc Anthony arrive at their baby shower on Jan. 19

highchair ($485), a Britax Boulevard Convertible Latch car seat ($339), Simplicity crib linen ($535 a set), a Monogram crib bedding set ($950 each) and a black Baby Jogger ($560).

SAID HER FRIEND: "JENNIFER chose the most expensive of everything. It's good that her friends are wealthy."

In addition to the luxury baby items, Jennifer is hiring a nanny at a whopping $100,000 a year, along with several baby nurses – who each charge $150 an hour and will work in 12-hour shifts.

Added the friend: "Jennifer says her new job is motherhood, and she's into it one hundred percent."
