

Jennifer came unglued when she spotted Cris talking backstage with Cilla Black in 2001

J.LO'S RAGE OVER HUBBY FLIRTING WITH 58-YEAR-OLD BRIT TV STAR

Cris Judd was just saying hi to a friend

The TV star first met Cris when he was a dancer at her Elton John-hosted birthday party in 1998. "It seems crazy that Jennifer was jealous of Cilla, but she and Cris had just gotten married a few months earlier, and Jennifer was ultra protective of him," a source close to the 39-year-old entertainer told THE ENQUIRER.

"JENNIFER CAN BE FIERCE! No matter who she's married to, she keeps an eye out for flirty women.

"Still, Cilla is such a sweetheart, and Jennifer was over-reaching when she believed she needed to put a stop to Cris and Cilla simply saying hello to each other."

Jennifer is now married to Marc Anthony, 40, and they're parents to 9-month-old twins Emme and Max.

"But she hasn't changed a bit," confided the source.

"J.Lo still can turn into a pit bull when it comes to her man."

by ROBIN MIZRAHI
rmizrahi@nationalenquirer.com

Jennifer and second hubby Cris in 2001

NOW it can be told! Jennifer Lopez won her reputation as a jealous wife by flying into a rage when she caught second husband Cris Judd saying hello to a 58-year-old woman.

British TV personality Cilla Black reveals that in 2001, Jennifer – who was 32 at the time – came unglued when she spotted Cilla and Cris talking backstage at the Royal Variety Performance in London.

"I'd met Cris before," Cilla told an interviewer, "and when he saw me backstage at the show, he came over for a flirt...J.Lo saw us and started fuming.

"She was screaming to her entourage, 'What's that woman doing with my man? Get rid of her.'

"It was so funny," Cilla recalled.

Jennifer with third husband Marc Anthony in September