Marc Anthony's secret night in hotel after marriage explodes

JENNIFER LOPEZ's husband Marc Anthony walked out of their home and went to his ex-wife after reports that the superstar couple's marriage hit a rocky stretch recently. The ENQUIRER has learned exclusively.

The salsa king made a beeline for his ex, former Miss Universe Dayanara Torres, then checked into a ritzy hotel, sources say.

Rumors of a rift between J.Lo, 39, and Marc, 40, have been racing through Hollywood — and now The ENQUIRER can reveal the shocking details of the night their four-year marriage exploded.

reportedly been at odds for months, and insiders say their long-simmering problems erupted at the end of November when Marc packed his bags and left the couple's sprawling $8.5 million villa in Bel Air.

He headed for the nearby home of 34-year-old beauty Dayanara, where he stayed until the wee hours of the morning, sources say. Afterward, he went to the luxury Four Seasons Hotel, according to sources.

Marc flew from Los Angeles to New York the next day, and Dayanara's reps insist that while the former spouses share a passion for their two boys — Cristian, 7, and 5-year-old Ryan — there is no romance between them.

Friends say that Marc has remained close to Dayanara, who won the 1993 Miss Universe title when she was just 18. And while that relationship has remained strong, Marc and J.Lo have reportedly been fighting over control issues in their marriage.

"Marc and Jennifer are both so incredibly headstrong that it's a wonder they have lasted as long as they have," says an insider.

Twice-divorced Jennifer wed Marc on June 5, 2004 — just four days after his divorce from Dayanara was finalized. He pays his ex-wife $3,500 a month in alimony and $13,000 a month in child support for their sons.

J.Lo's marriage to Marc had been regarded as one of the strongest in show business, particularly after the "Maid in Manhattan" star gave birth to twins Max and Emme in February. Marc also has a 14-year-old daughter, Arianna, from an earlier relationship.

But friends say things have appeared to be stormy for months.

"It is almost as if he wouldn't let Jennifer be Jennifer," explained the insider. "I think he tried to control her business and her social life."

"If Jennifer did something without telling him — like setting up a business meeting or even making a dinner date with a friend like actress Leah Remini — Marc would either accuse her of disrespecting him or invite himself along.

"Jennifer's tried hard to make the marriage work, but there have been fights for control over the past year."

According to the insider, it hasn't helped that Jennifer's mother Guadalupe doesn't seem to like Marc, and that the couple have continually clashed over where to set up a home base. Marc prefers living at their estate on New York's Long Island, while Jennifer likes Los Angeles.

A big blowup came over Thanksgiving when Jennifer's mom was visiting.
