

IT'S TWINS FOR J.LO

— SAY
PALS

Singer says she plans to finish concert tour

IS SHE or isn't she?

Jennifer Lopez says she is definitely NOT pregnant, but sources tell The ENQUIRER that she is — and she's expecting TWINS!

J.Lo, 38, has been trying to conceive for years and tried to keep a lid on the news, say sources.

"She has wanted to start a family since she first married Marc," said a friend. "It wasn't easy for her to get pregnant. She was afraid she was unable to."

"But now Jennifer and Marc couldn't be happier."

An insider told The ENQUIRER that the singer has undergone in vitro fertilization treatments (IVF) in the past.

With her new pregnancy, the sources say, "she feared a miscarriage and decided not to announce the pregnancy until after her first trimester."

Marc, 39, has three children — two boys and a girl — from a previous marriage and a relationship. The talented entertainer and his beautiful wife kept busy in September rehearsing their joint tour, which will run through November.

"BARRING ANY PHYSICAL PROBLEMS OR complications with the pregnancy, Jennifer plans to fulfill the tour," said the friend.

"She and Marc have asked that security be tightened. And people who aren't relevant to the concert won't be allowed backstage or at sound checks. They don't want Jennifer to be accidentally pushed or shoved."

The insider disclosed: "J.Lo and Marc were seriously considering adopting before she found out she was finally pregnant. She feels her prayers have been answered."

Added the friend: "She's already started to think about decorating the nurseries."

"MARC IS VERY excited and happy that his wife is getting what she wants so badly."

J.Lo feels strong and healthy, and sees no reason to cancel any concert dates, say sources.

"She doesn't plan to do any heavy-duty dance numbers. It's mostly a vocal concert," said the friend.

The couple will be on stage separately, singing their own hits, and then will team up to sing a series of duets.

"I've never seen Jennifer happier," disclosed the friend. "She's waited a long time to be a mother, and that means more to her than all the hit songs in the world."
