

SITCOM JOKER SHACKS UP WITH GALPAL

By ROBIN MIZRAHI

TWO AND A HALF MEN star Jon Cryer has moved in with his perfect soul mate – stunning newsgal Lisa Joyner – and friends predict they'll soon tie the knot.

After dating for 10 months, the couple have taken the next big step – setting up house together in suburban Los Angeles.

"Jon and Lisa make such a wonderful couple," said a friend. "They get along great, and complement each other beautifully.

"They're so in love, and feel so lucky to have found each other."

New York-born Cryer, 41, met 39-year-old

Lisa, a local Los Angeles entertainment and news reporter, by sheer chance as he went for a stroll.

"Jon passed by Lisa, who was watering her lawn," revealed the friend. "He stopped to chat, and it was pretty much love at first sight.

"Now, less than a year later, Lisa rented out her home, Jon got rid of his, and they've moved into a place just around the corner from where they each used to live."

Cryer was married for 10 years to British actress Sarah Trigger, and they share custody of their son, 6-year-old Charlie.

"Lisa doesn't have any children of her own, so this is her first try at motherhood," noted the friend. "But she absolutely adores Charlie.

"Since she and Jon haven't known each other all that long, they didn't want to marry right away – but this is a huge step, a sort of trial marriage."

Cryer, the son of Broadway actors, first hit it big with 1986's "Pretty in Pink," and now enjoys playing Alan Harper opposite Charlie Sheen.

Lisa, a Florida native, has worked as a TV reporter since 1996 and was named L.A.'s sexiest reporter by "Los Angeles" magazine. She broke into national TV in 2004 when she served as a guest host of CBS' "Late Late Show."

Concluded the friend: "They're so happy together. I wouldn't be surprised if Jon and Lisa are walking down the aisle by spring."

'I wouldn't be surprised if Jon and Lisa are walking down the aisle by spring'