

fit for a princess

BECKINSALE'S SWEET WEDDING

THE STAR: Kate's daughter Lily the day before the wedding.

was given away by her mother Judy Loe and stepfather Roy Battersby. The 40-minute ceremony was conducted by her godfather, David, and featured a tribute to her late father, actor Richard Beckinsale, who died tragically of a heart attack when Kate was 5.

"Lily led the team of pink-and-white-dressed flower girls — and Kate was beaming with pride," the friend revealed.

"Len and the groomsmen

— his four brothers — wore formfitting black suits.

"The most heartfelt moment of the ceremony came when one of the groomsmen dedicated a song to Kate, Pete Yorn's 'A Girl Like You.'

"The vows were simple but Len made vows to Lily as well. He placed a simple necklace with a little wedding ring around her neck. It was a tearfully golden moment."

After the wedding the 150 guests spilled into the Garden Room for dinner, which included porcini mushroom ravioli, portobello mushroom salad, grilled filet or chicken. Champagne flowed.

THE TOASTS

"Dinner was from 7 to 10 p.m. and featured toast after toast, including a hilarious tribute to how the couple met on the 'Underworld' set," another source disclosed.

"One toastmaster yelled out, 'Kate went to Len's trailer to discuss the script and never left!'"

"The only other major celebrity in attendance was her 'Underworld' Scott Speedman. After guests went into a lounge area featuring a chocolate fondue filled with baked deli-

"Little Lily had her pink reception tent for 20 friends, which is an area where the kids bake their own cookies."

The friend added: "I lingered till nearly 2 a.m. the happy couple — exited early. They had a family honeymoon on the Seychelles Islands."

— ROBIN M

WEDDING SCENES: An aerial view of the wedding location, which took place at the Hotel Bel-Air (below), a bridesmaid and flowers of white.

'Friends' finale: You read it here first

ON THE NIGHT of May 6, 52 million Americans sat glued to their TV sets to learn if Ross would end up with Rachel on the final episode of "Friends" — but ENQUIRER readers already knew the answer!

In our January 27 issue, we brought you all the blockbuster details of the closely guarded finale — including the dramatic reunion of Ross and Rachel at the end of the episode.

And a full four months before the airdate, ENQUIRER readers also knew that Monica and Chandler have twins in the finale — while Phoebe and Mike make plans to start their own family!

