drown my problems, but my problems learned to swim," admitted the actress, who suffers from rheumatoid arthritis, for which she was prescribed large doses of steroids to ease the pain.

Although she joined Alcoholics Anonymous in 1994, the 51-year-old Body Heat star was seen drinking heavily in public last year. During one incident in 2002, Weiss was called to collect her after she was found drunk and bleeding on the floor of a restaurant's ladies' room.

Turner, who has an 18-year-old daughter, Rachel Ann, once said: "I want to quit drinking for my husband, child and career."
