

Party girl Kim's $1 MILLION SEX TAPE

KIM KARDASHIAN sold her own raunchy sex tape, say pals!

And although she denies any involvement and is publicly threatening legal action to prevent the release of the sex video she made with ex-boyfriend Ray J, a source close to the 26-year-old socialite says Kim cut a $1-million behind-the-scenes deal to have the film leaked.

"Kim will do anything to break into show business – and a sex tape is a good way to garner publicity," a close pal told The ENQUIRER. "The tape was made a while ago, and she held on to it until she was ready to break out."

According to another source, Kim is close to signing a multimillion-dollar deal with E! Entertainment for a reality show that will focus on her family and zany life. And she's eager to have a signed deal by the time the sex tape, "Kim Kardashian Superstar," hits stores at the end of the month.

Ray J
with sister
Brandy

But Kim, the daughter of Robert Kardashian – O.J. Simpson's late pal and lawyer – isn't keeping all the profit for herself. According to the pal, she's splitting the cash with Ray J – brother of singer Brandy and current beau of Whitney Houston. He plans to use his cut to help pay for Brandy's legal fees stemming from a December car crash in which a woman was killed. The parents of the woman have filed a wrongful death lawsuit against Brandy and are seeking $50 million in damages.

by ROBIN MIZRAHI
and RICK EGUSQUIZA

Socialite
secret d

- SA