

T WEDDING

Even the guests didn't know where they were going

Around 35 close friends and family members boarded seaplanes that whisked them to a secluded resort for the nuptials

31, began dating in March 2007 and were engaged just a few months later. Last summer, Scarlett was quoted as saying she was determined to keep her nuptials "as private as possible."

"Preparations for the ceremony were shrouded in secrecy until the very last minute," said the insider. "She and Ryan picked an island that was inaccessible by ferry. "The only way to get there was by seaplane."

But despite the big hush-hush, the couple succeeded in pulling off the wedding of their dreams.

"It was an absolutely gorgeous event," concluded the insider.

LiLo and Sam are hoping to call the infamous Dakota building home

"They want a fresh start," a close pal told The ENQUIRER. "They're going to settle down in the city and eventually get married."

"Everything is falling into place – and Lindsay has never been happier."

The "Mean Girls" star, 22, and her girlfriend, 31, have known each other for several years, but their romance ignited during the summer of 2007, says the pal.

"It's longer than any relationship Lindsay's ever had with a man!"

Mom Dina is planning to throw a huge party to welcome Samantha to the family, adds the pal – and she's made it clear that she wants grandchildren.

WHEN IN ROME... The couple stroll the streets of the Eternal City

JUSTIN READY TO PROPOSE TO JESSICA

JUSTIN TIMBERLAKE has taken a giant leap closer to marriage.

The "SexyBack" singer purchased a pricey, vintage diamond engagement ring while on an ultraromantic vacation in Rome with Jessica Biel – and pals say he'll soon ask her to be his wife.

"Justin is ready to take the plunge," a friend told The ENQUIRER.

"Jess finished moving all of her stuff into Justin's Hollywood Hills home in early September, and now they're planning the future – married life and kids."

JUSTIN AND Jessica, both 26, have been dating for nearly two years. On Sept. 23, the cozy couple arrived on vacation in Rome. While in the Eternal City, they sneaked off to purchase a multcarat diamond ring and diamond encrusted bracelet. And the first call Justin made after the big buy was to his super-protective mom Lynn.

As The ENQUIRER previously revealed, she'd begged her son to postpone marrying Jessica because her psychic warned the match was all wrong.

"Justin got Lynn to come around," revealed the friend. "He told her that Jessica is the right woman for him, and told her he's going to propose soon. She's thrilled for him."

The lovers headed for southern Italy to attend the wedding of Jessica's best bud and former "7th Heaven" co-star Beverley Mitchell.

"Justin is a mushy romantic, so he's planning something really special for the proposal," disclosed the friend. "It won't be long. Justin can't wait to see the look on Jessica's face when he formally presents her with that stunning ring and announces their engagement to the world."

Singer buys the ring, just needs to pop the question!
