

MARCIA CROSS A JUNE BRIDE

By ROBIN MIZRAHI

"DESPERATE HOUSEWIVES" star Marcia Cross wasn't at all desperate over planning her June 24 wedding – the first-time bride left it to her fiancé!

Unlike her ultra-organized, perfectionist character Bree, the star delegated much of the wedding preparation to 48-year-old Tom Mahoney – even though it was also his first trip down the aisle.

The 44-year-old actress and the financial adviser agreed on a lavish Los Angeles ceremony.

"Marcia just isn't a detail-oriented gal," explained an insider. "She left everything to Tom and a wedding planner."

However, the actress did pick out her wedding dress – a stunner from New York designer Reem Acra, revealed the insider, and she requested lots of candlelight and summer flowers.

Romance blossomed when the Emmy-nominated actress met Tom in a flower shop in December 2004. They got engaged eight months later.

With Marcia's show on summer hiatus, the couple will enjoy a long honeymoon in Africa.

