ANN MORGAN GUILBERT
Ann Morgan Guilbert, who fans will remember as the nosy neighbor Millie, returned to TV in 1993, playing Yetta Rosenberg on "The Nanny." She also had a recurring role on "Picket Fences" as Miriam Wambaugh and hit the big screen as Sophia Loren's mom in 1995's "Grumpier Old Men." A widow since 1997, Guilbert has two daughters and two grandchildren.

LARRY as Ritchie

LARRY MATHEWS
At 48, former child star Larry Mathews still has little Ritchie's cherubic face, although he no longer has a full head of hair. Larry left acting behind when the series ended in 1966, but carved out a career behind the cameras in editing, postproduction and sales. To this day, he has fond memories of the show. "It was a wonderful experience," he recalled. "Dick and Mary treated me like I was their own kid."

DICK VAN DYKE & MARY TYLER MOORE
When Mary and Dick left the show, they were madly in love with each other! "If we had both been single, I'm absolutely positive that we would have had a behind-the-scenes love affair," said Dick. As it turns out, the pair's friendship remained platonic. "We still love each other," said Mary. "Our mutual admiration evolved into a brother-sister type of love, but that spark of romance will always be there." Mary went on to star in "The Mary Tyler Moore Show" and the heart-wrenching movie, "Ordinary People."

battle with diabetes. But for the past 20 years she has been happily married to cardiologist Dr. Robert Levine, who is 18 years her junior. Dick has also known heartache. In 1972 he sought help for alcoholism, but he didn't quit drinking until 1975, after starring as a dad whose boozing destroys his family in the TV movie, "The Morning After." Divorced from his first wife, Marjorie, Dick has lived with galpal Michelle Triola since the mid '80s and is devoted to his four grown children. In 1993 he returned to TV as a crime-solving doctor on "Diagnosis Murder." Dick, now 78, sings in a quartet that tours hospitals. Last year he appeared on NBC's "Scrubs" and he reunited with Mary in the TV movie "The Gin Game."

RAY ROMANO hosts this very special reunion.
