

SPIDEY SPILLS HIS GUTS

OH, throw up! Even superheroes like Spider-Man Tobey Maguire don't have power over tummy trouble. As our photos show, the movie webmeister got sick on the fly and left a sticky mess all over a Los Angeles sidewalk.

Ironically, the 27-year-old actor had just left a doctor's office - well, OK, it was an eye doc - when he doubled over and spilled his guts.

"Tobey looked just awful," an eyewitness tells GLOBE. "He was white as a ghost, had several days of stubble on his face and his hair was unkempt. He even sort of limped as he walked down the street to his silver Mercedes-Benz.

"But he drove only about 100 yards before his car came to a screeching halt and he scrambled out. Tobey had barely made it to the sidewalk when he doubled over and heaved.

"Afterward, he used his T-shirt to wipe his mouth and chin, and then staggered back to his car. Once inside, he dropped his head on his arms and rested on the wheel. Maybe Tobey was paying the price for a night out on the town. Whatever, it sure wasn't pretty!"

Poor Tobey Maguire
lets go - all over the sidewalk!
