

His hock shop attracts top-drawer clientele

If you're ever down and out in Beverly Hills, you can always rustle up a few bucks visiting Israeli-born Yossi Dina – pawnbroker to the stars.

But don't expect a small, rundown hock joint.

Dina's operation on ritzy Wilshire Boulevard caters to only top-of-the-line customers buying, selling and pawning top-of-the-line collectibles.

Madonna stops by to borrow jewelry for photo shoots ... Judge Judy bought her husband's watch there ... and actor George Hamilton went there to buy his ex-girlfriend, novelist Danielle Steel, a string of black pearls.

Dina buys, sells and lends articles carrying such labels as Cartier, Tiffany, Rolex and Bulgari – many of them bought from Sotheby's and Christie's auction sales and estate sales.

Valuables that have passed through his hands include jewelry from Ava Gardner's estate, a diamond brooch that belonged to Greta Garbo – and the Rolls-Royce from the original Thomas Crown Affair movie.

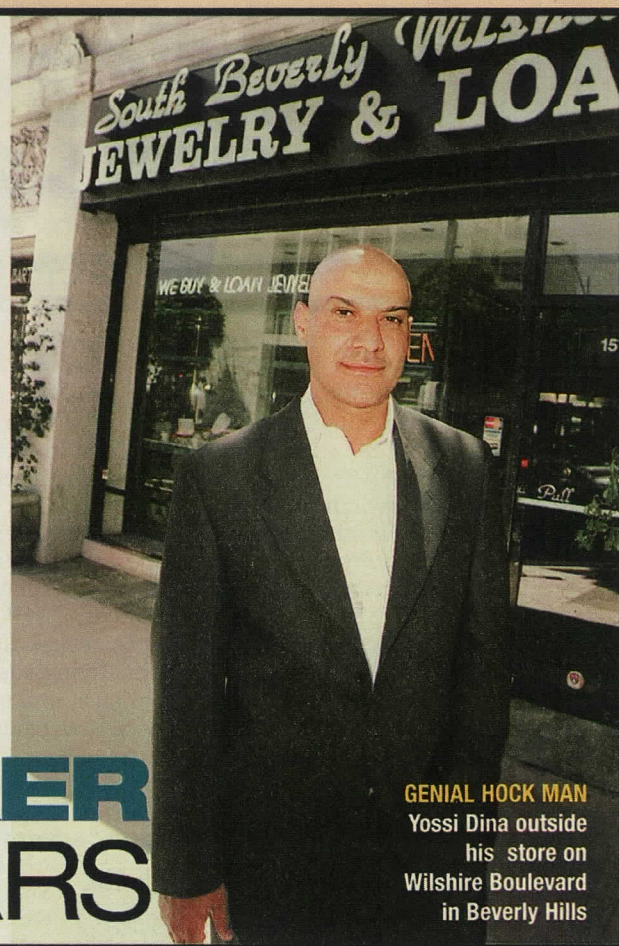

Dina, 45, never forgets the first big star he did business with – screen legend Lana Turner.

"I fell in love with her on the spot," he confesses.

"She was buying jewelry, but I couldn't bring myself to accept her check, so I ripped it up." – ROBIN MIZRAHI ★
